INTERESTING FACTS:

I grew up in more than half a dozen different countries (Malaysia, Brunei, Hong Kong, Philippines, Taiwan, Canada, and Australia) because my parents are missionary church-planters. Because of that, I went to three different kindergartens in three different languages (Bahasa Malay, Cantonese, and English).

I have had the privilege of having some of my writings published in two books; one of them in two languages (English and Chinese).

I graduated from a Christian kindergarten, high school, university, and graduate school.

My wife and I were actually born in the same hospital but our paths did not cross until I was in graduate school.
